Graham High School . . . my school . . . homeroom period . . . "Your attention, please, for announcements" . . . a bell, and then locker doors slamming shut . . . cramming for exams . . . "Latin is a dead language" . . . the musical tone of the 3:10 bell . . . Mr. Bryan and teachers . . . the thrill of football season . . . pep rallies . . . busy Juniors . . . Christmas holidays . . . report cards that come so regularly . . . cheering our basketball team . . . school spirit . . . assembly every other Wednesday . . . "big" Seniors . . . and finally, graduation . . . "staunch and true her Red and Black will ever stand."

We would like to express our appreciation to all the merchants and teachers for their co-operation. Our association has indeed been a pleasant one.

The WAG Staff has tried to record on these pages our many "DAY BY DAY" experiences that will all too soon become memories.

THESE DOORS TO THE SCHOOL WE LOVE

LEARNING FROM COMPETENT LEADERSHIP;

Our principal and the senior sponsors have carefully guided us through our years at Graham High School. By thoughtful planning and discussion they have led us DAY BY DAY.

ACTIVELY ENGAGED IN STUDENT ORGANIZATIONS

The Student Council is an example of democratic government in our school. Unlike other organizations, it represents each individual student.

Growing THROUGH BETTER SPORTSMANSHIP

Laughing AND Living...

Day By Day

Within a matter of seconds after the bell rings, the lunch line forms. The sounds of banging trays, chattering voices, and popular music make up our daily lunch period.

There is a bell and another rush for lockers before the next class begins. These are hectic moments that occur DAY BY DAY.

OUR LIFE AT GRAHAM HIGH SCHOOL.

DEDICATION...

Having served the school faithfully and efficiently for six years, is one who not only renders tangible services, but is a personal friend to us all. She does so many "little" things DAY BY DAY that go unnoticed and are taken for granted.

To one who is always cheerful and optimistic, always tactful and considerate, always polite and courteous, always ready and willing to do any task which makes the way more pleasant for pupils or teachers -- To Mrs. Mary Lou Clarkson, our school secretary, we lovingly and gratefully dedicate The 1959 WAG.

Administration

Members of the school board determine the policies of our school. They are Dr. Grady Wheeler, Mrs. Roy King, Mr. W. F. Hadley, Chairman; Mr. James A. Albright, and Mr. Garland King.

DAY BY DAY we are taking a larger part in the activities at G.H.S. This year we hold our heads a little higher because at last, there is someone younger and greener than we. We realize there are lots of things yet to learn but we are well on our way to becoming leaders at G.H.S.

Our first days as active members of G.H.S. are difficult ones. There are classrooms to find, new subject matter to become acquainted with, and rigid schedules to meet. By hard work and participation in school activities, we try hard to prove ourselves able and willing leaders -- proud members of G.H.S.

Activities

Leaders

"Day By Day"

The Student Council is affiliated with the National Association of Student Councils. Composed of four officers, one representative from each home room, the faculty adviser, and the principal, the council is a form of faculty-student cooperation. The aim of the Student Council is to foster a more cooperative spirit among both groups and individuals.

Student Council officers are as follows: President, Bruce Kernodle; Adviser, Miss Church; Treasurer, Jeanne Swanner; Vice-President, Gay Euliss; and Secretary, Janie Holt.

Joe Okey, Millicent Basden, Walter Graham, Sally Compton, and Carolyn Marion search the files for ideas for assembly programs.

"Pencil, paper, anyone?" Janie Holt, Jeanne Swanner, Gay Euliss, Becky Minor, and Bruce Kernodle keep busy at the student store.

The Council At Work

Susie Nash, Joan Pulliam, George Wightman, and Sarah Andrew prepare for one of the council's yearly projects -- Career Day.

"Your ticket, please." Grouped around the ice cream box are John Shoffner, Bob Clapp, Pam Moore, Mary Pat Evans, and Mike Bason.

Advertising Manager Linda Cody, Wayne Whitted, her assistant; Business Manager Ronnie Petree, and his assistant Deanna Shoffner spend many hours soliciting ads.

In the head of Editor Barbara Thompson was formulated the maze of copy, pictures, and appointments - all of which took form in this book.

Something Different

To the reader of this annual we make this request: Handle this book with all possible care and respect. The WAG Staff has attempted to record for you all the dreams and actual DAY BY DAY happenings at Graham High. Weeks and months of work, late hours, and fun went into the composition of this yearbook.

"Look at this one," says Art Editor Gail Bowers to Sports Editor Hal McAdams and Activities Manager Barbara Bowling as they sort pictures for layouts.

If you're looking for typists Bruce Kernodle, Katherine Swanner, Becky Minor, and Becky Moss, you'll find them pecking out copy for the annual.

In The Making

The duties of taking pictures, writing copy, editing senior statistics, identifying pictures, and drawing layouts were carried out with eagerness and painstaking care by the staff members. It is to these loyal workers that we owe the production of The 1959 WAG.

Adviser Mrs. Smith and Associate Editor Janie Holt scan annuals from various schools for new and different ideas.

Circulation Manager Diana Foster, her assistant Joyce Creasy, and Photographer Dickie Johnson post a reminder from the annual staff concerning deadline dates for annual sales.

The members of The CRACKER Staff assemble the Christmas edition of The CRACKER. They are as follows: Mary Pat Evans, Billy Moore, Ray Wheeler, Nancy Layton, Jean McDonald, Sarah Andrew, Gloria Cody, Pat Staub, Barbara Stacey, George Neal, Marie Burke, Sandra Whitesell, Auburn Burnette, Bennie Crabtree, George Wightman, Marsha Williams, Kendra Evans, and Gay Euliss.

Keep well informed! To notify us of the happenings at G.H.S. is the school newspaper, The CRACKER. The CRACKER Staff strives to make the newspaper interesting and enjoyable for our student body.

The CRACKER is edited every six weeks, and a copy is given to each student free of charge. We owe our news staff a debt of gratitude for a job well done.

ADVISER
Mrs. DeWeese

Selecting a play that will appeal to the public is the first step in its production.

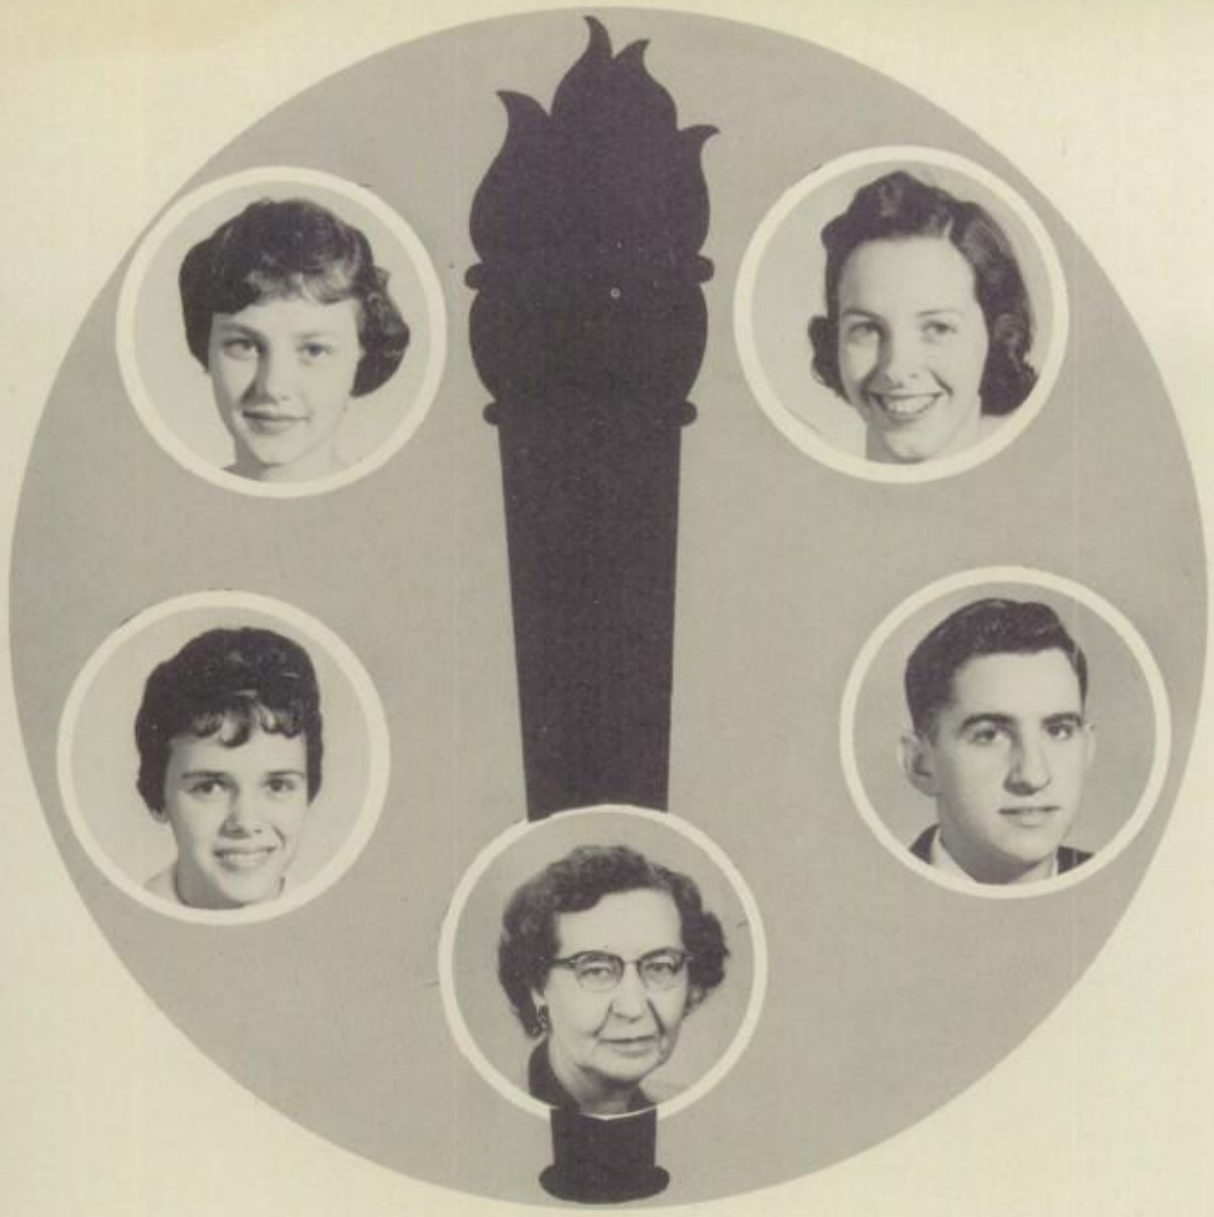
Practice makes for perfection and a successful performance.

"The Play's The Thing..."

Under the direction of Mrs. Walker, the Dramatics Club has provided entertainment through its work on the Thanksgiving and senior play productions. Even though the members may never appear on Broadway, they have had fun while profiting from the experience that comes from performing before an audience.

Behind the scenes are those who are essential in creating the necessary settings.

The addition or subtraction of years is made possible in a few moments by the work of the make-up artists.



The National Honor Society attempts to express in tangible service to the school and community the ideals symbolized by the letter on its emblem--character, leadership, service, and scholarship.

The main projects of the society are the annual White Christmas program and the scholarship awarded to a worthy senior.

DIRECTOR
Miss Apple

Striving to improve the vocal talents of the members of the Glee Club, Miss Apple directed three practices a week and held several afternoon rehearsals in preparation for the annual Christmas and spring assembly programs.

For A Better Tomorrow

The Graham High School Chapter of the Future Homemakers of America is composed of girls who have taken, or who are taking Home Economics. The motto, "Toward New Horizons," expresses the purpose of the organization whose main goal is to train girls to become better homemakers and citizens of tomorrow.

Beauty Brightens

The members of Arts and Crafts make many original and decorative projects. It seems as though they are able to construct crafts with the use of very few materials, but with a great deal of imagination. From a few pieces of yarn the members fashion an adorable animal, and from a bit of foil they make an attractive Christmas decoration. The two groups are sponsored by Miss Church and Miss Currin.

The Science Club is divided into small groups. Each week one of these groups, under the direction of Mr. Hill, presents a program on a science topic such as zoology, aviation, electricity, weather, minerals, and rocks.

The World And Its Wonders

The Nature Club is designed to offer advanced study in the plant and animal kingdom. Biology students receive general acquaintance and training by individual observation and research. Mr. Busick is the faculty adviser.

Builders of Tomorrow

The Gamma Eta Sigma Club, newly organized this year, has been very active in school improvement. They have undertaken as their projects the construction of a record player for dancing after lunch and a music system in the cafeteria. Mr. Hill serves as adviser.

Pathway To Literature

The purpose of the Library Club is to promote better understanding and co-operation in the student use of the library, and to arouse interest in the study of librarianship as a profession. The members of this club assist the librarian, Mrs. Lee, who acts as their adviser.

Deserving Athletes Earn Letters

Members of the Monogram Club, sponsored by Mr. Heckman, promote school spirit and encourage good sportsmanship in athletics. Operating the concession stand at basketball games is one means of raising money for the annual scholarship presented to a deserving senior.

Film Flickers

The purpose of the Motion Picture Projection activity is to supply teachers with well-trained operators of audio-visual equipment. With the successful completion of this training, the students are awarded certificates by their instructor, Mr. Russell.

Fun And Fair Play

While developing good muscle co-ordination and playing ability, those in Boys' Games also develop a system of fair play and good sportsmanship. This activity, under the leadership of Mr. Heckman, is for boys who are not taking the physical education course.

Highway Safety-First And Foremost

During an eighteen-week course of instruction, the members of the Driver Training activity are taught many vital "extras" of driving. This promotion of safe driving habits and courtesy on the road will prove useful for these sophomores. Mrs. Smith is adviser.

Serving

The following marshals, selected on the basis of their scholastic achievement, served as ushers throughout the graduation exercises: Joan Cornell, Carolyn Starnes, Sarah Andrew, Joanne Braxton, Hulda Sharpe, Billy Stockard, and Wayne Whitted.

Us

Assisting Mrs. Clarkson, these office receptionists ran errands, answered the telephone, and performed many other duties: Cheyra Patton, Deanna Shoffner, Linda Daves, Linda Cody, Sylvia Fogleman, and Walter Kirkpatrick.

Daily

The maintenance and cafeteria staffs have done a great deal to make our DAY BY DAY life at G. H. S. more pleasant. They are Mrs. Robena Crumpton, Mrs. Annie Jane Thompson, Mrs. Cherrie Wade, Mr. Sam Morrow, Mrs. Harold Lovette, Mrs. P. O. Burch, Mrs. Wayne Dawkins, and Mrs. Jean Collins. Mrs. Rylma Reavis and Mr. Ben Hinshaw are not pictured.

"Come on, let's yell!" Repeatedly the cheerleaders have chanted these familiar words, thereby boosting the morale of the team and student body. The student body owes both groups of cheerleaders a vote of thanks for many proud accomplishments.

Features

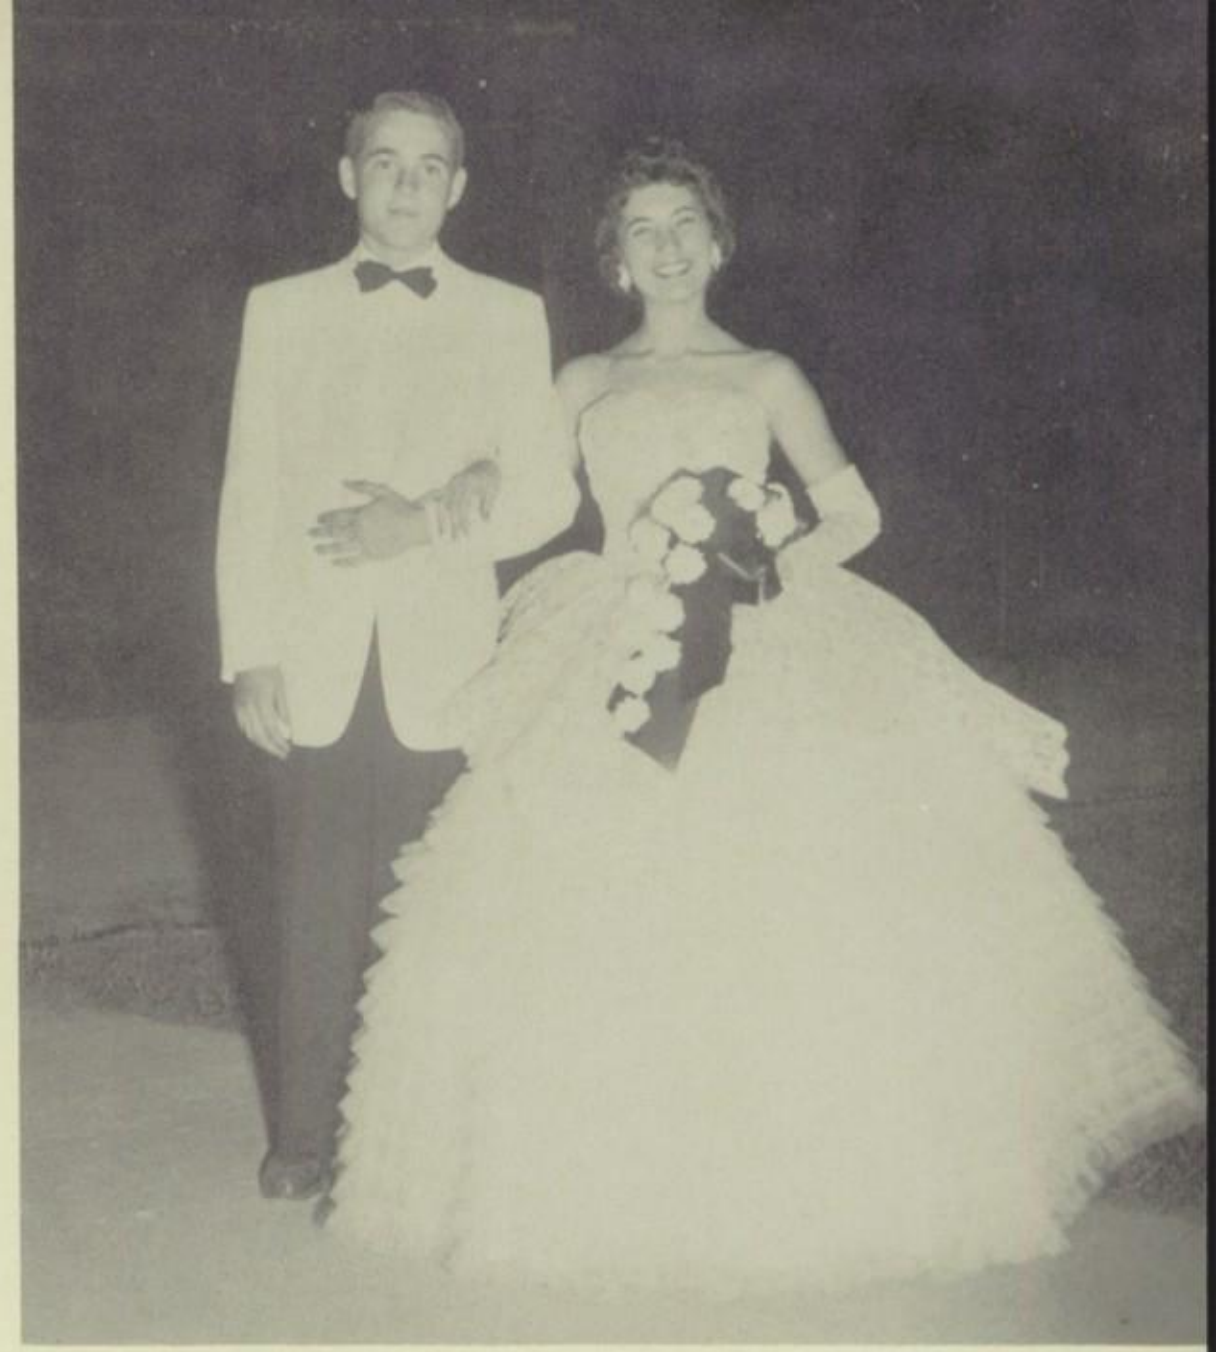
Lovely Nancy Layton, with Hal McAdams as her escort, reigned over Homecoming festivities.

At last the big day dawned -- cool and clear. From three to four o'-clock classes were active completing last-minute details on their floats. The parade was composed of these attractive floats, the Homecoming Court, and club sponsors.

Surrounding the queen and her escort are the members of the Homecoming Court, seated as follows: Jerry Garner, Joan Pulliam, Tommy Bason, Jean McDonald, Sammy Barnes, Diane McPherson, Bobby Johnson, and Judy Patten.

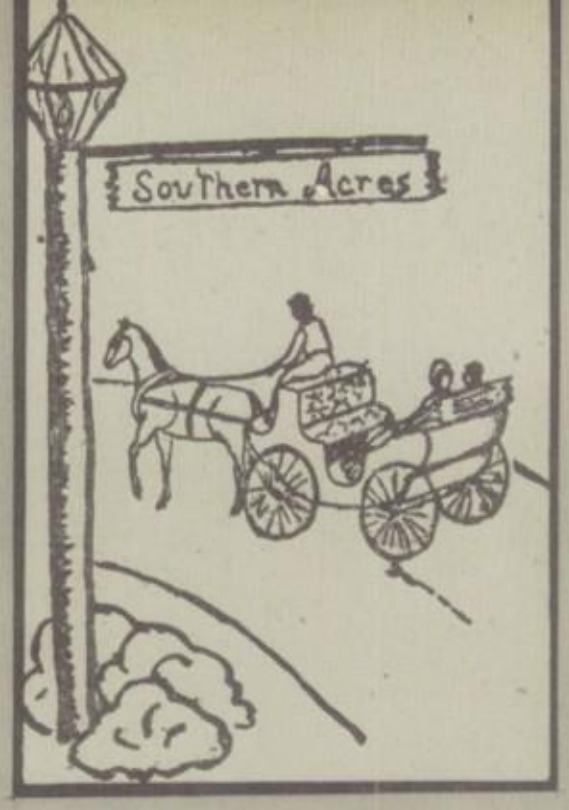
The game against Oxford Orphanage was a victorious one. The halftime activities, during which the queen was crowned, added color and excitement to the night.

With high spirits the spectators and team gathered in the gym to honor the alumni and renew old friendships.



Jean McDonald, escorted by Tommy Bason, served as Maid of Honor for the Homecoming Coronation.

Enjoying refreshments and dancing after the game, the alumni were once again an important part of G.H.S.



"Carolina Moon"

The moon was shining bright in Carolina,
The night we said good-bye so tenderly.
And now that I'm away from Carolina,
Won't somebody tell the moon for me. Oh!

Chorus

CAROLINA MOON keep shining,
Shining on the one who waits for me.
CAROLINA MOON I'm pining,
Pining for the place I long to be.
How I'm hoping to-night you'll go,
Go to the right window, scatter your light,
Say I'm al-right please do.
Tell her that I'm blue and lonely,
Dreamy CAROLINA MOON.
